

November 25, 2015 a conference on "Internet" was held in Hyatt. Conference was attended by representatives of ISOC, Almaz Bakenov, director of the National Center of Information Technologies of the Kyrgyz Republic, Askar Kutanov, regional coordinator of the EC CAREN project, representative of the National Communications Agency and employees from the ISPs. Internet access in regions, network security, cooperation and experience exchange with communities and forum on the Internet development was discussed at the conference.