

Today happened something that Kyrgyz people waited for a long time - Kyrgyz language was included to the popular Google Translate service. Service has more than a million Kyrgyz phrases and more than 3.5 million words.

Work on the project began in 2014 and ended in almost two years. "It is the merit of all volunteers who participated in the project, who translated phrases. We only coordinated their work, encouraged them. But they did most of the work. We conducted events like Kyrgyz Translate, in which more than 700 people participated. I think this is a first major success of the volunteer movement in Kyrgyzstan ", - said K-News head of public fund "Bizdin Muras" Chorobek Saadanbekov.

Hi Chorobek,

Yes, it's official, Kyrgyz is now part of Translate!

<http://googletranslate.blogspot.com/2016/02/from-amharic-to-xhosa-introducing.html>
to spread the news now.

Thank you very much for your support and we hope we can continue improving Kyrgyz translations going forward.

Thanks